

TECHNICAL BULLETIN FROM GLOBAL BUSINESS SYSTEMS

BULLETIN NUMBER GT876, 1 OCTOBER 1998

Global Payroll October 1998 changes

New regulations come into force from the 1st October 1998 which affect the payment of court orders for Council Tax. Statutory Instrument 1998 No. 295 has amended regulation 5 and given rise to a new schedule for payments of all Council Tax court orders issued after 1st October. The new schedule is:

Weekly earnings	Monthly earnings	Deduction rate (%)
Up to £55	Up to £220	0
£55 - £100	£220 - £400	3
£100 - £135	£400 - £540	5
£135 - £165	£540 - £660	7
£165 - £260	£660 - £1040	12
£260 - £370	£1040 - £1480	17
Exceeding £370	Exceeding £1480	17 up to limit 50 on the excess

CHANGES TO GLOBAL PAYROLL

A new Type of court order (Type "U") has been created to cater for the new schedule. Type "U" will operate in exactly the same way as the previous Council Tax court orders (Type "T") except for the new schedule. Please note that the schedules for court orders are held within the Payroll programs and are not maintained under the Amend rates options.

RELEASE OF THE SOFTWARE

The changes are now available on Autozaps under zap PR-6.4-72. The zap is available on the Bulletin-board and will later be placed on an Autozap run.